

RYAN L. GARNER, ASSOCIATE

Ryan Garner joined Norris Choplin Schroeder LLP in January 2024. He concentrates his practice in civil litigation, including insurance defense and coverage, workers' compensation defense, asbestos, and business litigation. Prior to joining NCS, Ryan was a 6-year associate at a small firm in Indianapolis where he practiced in the same litigation areas as well as estate and probate law.

Ryan attended Indiana University where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in neuroscience, with a business minor. After graduating from IU, he worked for two years as a chemist at an Indianapolis-based pharmaceutical company.

Ryan attended the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law where he graduated with a Juris Doctor degree and a Graduate Certificate in Health Law. During law school, Ryan served on the executive board of the Indiana Health Law Review and the Board of the Health Law Society. His Law Review Note was published in the Indiana Health Law Review in 2017. He also gained valuable experience completing a corporate legal internship at a regional health system and working as a law clerk for a personal injury firm.

Ryan is a lifelong Hoosier. He and his wife live in Indianapolis with their two dogs, Penny and Riley. They stay active with their large families and enjoy cooking and travel. Outside of work, you can find Ryan at a stadium cheering on the Colts, Pacers, Indy Eleven, or IU Hoosiers.
