

KATELYN H. JUERLING, PARTNER

Katelyn H. Juerling (“Kate”) is a partner at Norris Choplin Schroeder LLP, having joined the firm in 2016 as a law clerk and then as an associate attorney in 2017. She represents clients in a variety of capacities including insurance defense, insurance coverage, business services, construction law and family law. Kate was named to the Thomson Reuters 2025 Indiana Super Lawyers® Rising Star List. She was also selected by her peers for inclusion in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America® from 2021 to 2025.

Kate attended the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law where she was named to the Order of the Barristers in the school’s moot court competition and competed at a national level. Kate is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of DePauw University where she was a four-year letter winner on the NCAA women’s softball team, earning All-Conference accolades and playing in two Women’s College World Series. Upon graduation, she was named one of DePauw’s Top 10 Scholar Athletes.

In 2023, Kate was nominated for the United Way’s Volunteer of the Year award and was additionally nominated for the Junior Achievement’s Best and Brightest award in the law category. Kate is also involved in the Indianapolis Bar Association and was named a 2022-2023 member of the Bar Leader Series. She serves as a volunteer Guardian ad Litem for Kids Voice of Indiana, a Walker Foundation mentor, and a Board Member for Ability Allies.

Kate is an Indianapolis native, a graduate of Cathedral High School, and a parishioner at St. Simon the Apostle Catholic Church.

In her free time, Kate has developed her skills as a long-distance runner. Her crowning running achievement occurred in 2022, when she competed in the TCS New York City Marathon. She also enjoys playing CCA slow-pitch softball at the Jewish Community Center and/or Broad Ripple Park with her husband and several family members.
