

NATHAN K. SILVA, ASSOCIATE

Nathan Silva joined Norris Choplin Schroeder LLP as an associate attorney in February 2025. Prior to joining NCS, he practiced at another firm in Indianapolis, where he practiced in civil litigation including insurance defense, trucking and transportation liability, premises liability, products liability and professional liability.

Nathan earned his Bachelor's degree in Public Financial Management at Indiana University. In 2024, he graduated from the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law where he served on the executive board of the Indiana Health Law Review. He was a law clerk at a civil litigation defense firm and also completed a corporate and health legal internship at a local hospital system.

Nathan is an avid hiker and enjoys travel and hiking in U.S. National Parks. As a soccer player in early days, he enjoys following both British and U.S. soccer teams. He also enjoys reading history, especially about the medieval period in Europe, and spending time with family and friends.
